A NEW DEPARTURE.

Our readers will be glad to learn that Mr. S. S. Shaw, so long and favorably known by his management of Mr. Dodd's bus and express system, has opened a shoeing establishment opposite Dodd's stables, on Fort street. It has long been a matter of grievance here, not only to owners of horses but to persons of kindly hearts, that the shoeing of horses has often been very much neglected, and indeed often cruelly done. These, then, will be glad to know that a gentleman of Mr. Shaw's experience has undertaken to see that no such doings will be allowed under his control, and has engaged the best workman in this branch in Honolulu. The appliances provided, too, are not to be found elsewhere, we believe, and are specially intended for the humane and curative treatment of all animals sent to the shop that need it.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The stmr Jas. Makee brought 2,760 bags sugar, 31 bags rice.
The stmr Mokolii brought 236 bags sugar, 1,000 bags rice, 70 bran.
Schr Liholillo 1,800 sugar;
Schr Kamoi 2700 bags of sugar.
The J A Falkenberg took 5397 bags of sugar, 1809 bags of rice, 219 kegs of sugar, 9 cases of ham and bacon, 22 bbls of salmon, 31 half bbls of salmon.
Schr Mana brought 6000 coconuts and 18 cords of fire wood.
The U.S. flagship Hartford may be expected about the end of the month with the Eclipse-Observation party on board.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

Owing to pressure on our space the report of the concert is held over.

The German immigrants by the Ehrenfels for Kauai went yesterday. Those for Maui and Hawaii will go today.

Mr. A. G. Ellis reports having sold 14 shares of Wailuku at $900, 10 of Waianae at $135, and 20 of Waimanalo at $135 each.

UNUSUAL activity prevails in the Army over the projected trip to Kohala. Drills and parades are going on constantly.

Our readers on Hawaii and Maui are reminded that the eclipse of sun will be visible to them on Sunday next between 11:15 a.m. and noon.

Did he play the drum or did he whistle? That is what agitates the public mind at present. Vide Press's Honolulu Reminiscences.

The well belonging to Mr. James Campbell at Kapuhulu has struck a heavy flow of water. The water rises 15 inches above the pipe. Plenty of water for the Park lots now.

Mr. James Dodd now has his office, the bus waiting-room, and the stables lighted up with gas. The same improvement will be introduced into the saloon, when it is finished.

Two Bolobolas had quite a little row in one of the saloons on Nuuanu street on Saturday night. Peace was restored by the personal intervention of the Marshal, who had the place cleared.

On Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, while a buggy was turning the corner of King and Richard streets a hind wheel came off. The occupants were thrown out and the horse ran away. It was stopped near Smith's bridge.

On Sunday afternoon a boat belonging to the brig Morning Star, containing two ladies and two gentlemen, was seen to be in difficulties off the entrance to the harbor. The yacht Emma went out and rendered them valuable assistance in piloting to a place of safety.

On Saturday afternoon a party of young ladies and men-of-war officers were riding up Nuuanu street. One of them rode over and knocked down a little white child. Although they stopped and argued with the parents no redress was offered.

THE Wailuku Sugar Co. declare a dividend of $50 per share, payable this day at C. Brewer & Co's. This is simply the profits for one month. How those who have sold out of this Company must regret it!

TO-NIGHT the Athletic Association hold their promised entertainment at the Gymnasium, Fort street. A reference to the advertisement in another column will show the character of the entertainment, and we can assure our readers that it ought to be good, if the names of the performers be taken as a guarantee. It is certain, too, that the Association is doing good work and therefore deserves all the encouragement that can be given. We trust, therefore, to see a large attendance of those "on pleasure bent" to-night, and we can assure them they will feel pleased that they did not miss the opportunity. At the last moment we are told that an impromptu dance and promenade concert will follow the regular programme.

It is said that the reason that the missing lamp has not, as yet, been replaced at the corner of Emma street is, that the government have got the post but have no lamp to put on top of it. Who has got it?

Two South Sea Islanders from Haiku Plantation got some whiskey at Paia and quarrelled. One cut the other with a knife in over twenty places. The wounded man may recover. His assailant is in Makawao goal.

SOME photographs of the Navezdnik and Leipsic firing a salute and other views of Honolulu harbor, by Messrs. Williams & Co., are on exhibition in front of Messrs. J. M. Oat, Jr., & Co.'s window. They are well worth seeing.

A pleasant change is noticed by those who have business to transact at the Deputy Marshal's office and Police Court. A general cleaning up has been made, and new matting laid down. But the same hands carry on the business of the law and don't you forget it.

MORE complaints are being heard of the robbery of letters from the Post Office either from the boxes here or from the Post offices on the other islands. As only those containing drafts are ever inquired after or known of it is very probable the thing has been done to a far greater extent than is at present suspected.

THE Y. M. C. A. Praise and Thanks-giving Service on Sunday afternoon in their new building drew together as large a number as the Dedication Exercises did the week before. The gratifying features about it were the presence of so many young men and so many strangers. Mr. Pratt led the meeting.

ON Saturday evening at about 7 o'clock while the bus was waiting at Kailhi, a horseman in galloping past knocked down a little boy, aged about six years. The boy was playing in the road with a number of others, although warned by several to keep off the road as it was dark. The horseman did not stop to see the result of the accident which was not, however, serious.

SUNDAY morning the Kamoi arrived off port but couldn't get in having jammed her rudder hard aground by striking it on a rock. The Pele went out to tow her in, but was forced to give it up. The Kamoi anchored outside. Yesterday the Pele went aground. After rigging up an apparatus of boards and tackle so as to keep the rudder straight, the Kamoi was lashed side by side to the Pele and thus brought in. Owing to the rough sea the bow of the Kamoi were damaged by striking against the Pele.

FURTHER particulars are to hand of the Lahaina murder. The murderer and his victim were both firm friends before this occurrence and nothing had disturbed their friendship. They went to a certain native who sold liquor on the sly and purchased half-a-coffee-potful of beer. They filled it up with gin, and drank it between them. They could recollect nothing further. The knife has not yet been found. Kalolo, the assailant, plead guilty to the charge of murder and is now in custody in Honolulu.

AGAIN the Chinese are to the front. No system of house to house delivery of letters has ever yet been established here, but our Chinese fellow-citizens have carried into operation for some time a plan, which, to a certain extent, obviates the necessity for it. An open box is affixed to the outside of one of the stores on Nuuanu street, and every one who chooses may deposit his letters there. As every one who expects a letter can go and look in the box at any hour of the day or night, the convenience of the system will be appreciated.

EVERY month, on the last Saturday in the month, exit from, and entrance into town, on King street, is almost wholly prevented by the Chinese Engine Co. placing their apparatus for practice in the middle of King street, opposite the foot of Maunakea street. Horses which are in any degree timid of passing clouds of steam and the rattling of an engine refuse to proceed further, so that traffic is almost entirely stopped. Perhaps the authorities will suggest a more suitable place for practice after a severe accident has happened.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The Saturday Press' report of the dedicatory exercises of the new hall of the Y. M. C. A., contains the following sentence: "In deference to what seems mistaken diffidence, the names of those contributing are withheld." What your contemporary denominates "mistaken diffidence," some sincere people consider "commendable diffidence." The Saturday Press may be right and these other people wrong, but these people certainly seem to have the sanction of scripture in support of their view. In every community there are evil-minded persons who attribute wrong motives to those who give publicly to any good cause, whereas those who give "in secret" are not open to the same accusation. DIFFIDENCE.

WEST MAUI CORRESPONDENCE.

LAST Saturday evening, soon after the departure of the steamer which brought to Lahaina the news of the shooting at fray at Hilo, two native laborers, Hoomana and Kalolo by name, under the influence of liquor, got into an altercation about some trifling matter, and Hoomana stabbed Kalolo in the abdomen. On Monday the injured man died, having not yet received medical attendance. Hoomana is held for murder. Rum-selling and rum-drinking seem to be bearing their legitimate fruits lately.

HILLO NOTES.

News comes from Hilo that H. Tennant died on the afternoon of the 20th. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was that "deceased came to his death by a pistol-shot by one Casper." Great excitement prevails and the guard guards had been doubled. Many stories are rumored of the original cause of the attack. Neither of the two men who died would tell who was with them at the house. It is said that Tennant's wife and family are on their way to join him here. A long and detailed account of the whole affair from one point of view has been drawn up and signed by a number of the residents and sent to the Gazette. McCullum stated to the doctor before he died that "he had no business there and it served him right."

Not as yet generally known.
THE Public throughout Honolulu may not know that the premises recently occupied by W. E. Herrick, at No. 110 Fort Street, opposite the Pantheon Stables, is now known as the "City Shoeing Shop."

This new Establishment, will be a source of gratification to our community, inasmuch as cruel and torturous shoeing has heretofore been to largely practiced on man's noblest animal by so called Horse shoers.
Edward Doyle, the well known experienced and skillful Horse Shoer, is manager of this shop, which is a recommendation in itself, and with the practical assistance of Andrew Brown, the floorman, our citizens may fully rely on their merits as master mechanics.
It would well repay our citizens to visit and examine Soaking Stalls and Foot Tubs arranged and built expressly for operating on wounded and disabled horses, which no other shop in this Kingdom has adopted.
